

Choi Sujin

Choi Sujin (b. 1986) constructs painterly spaces based on places and moments encountered during walks and travels, layering sensory impressions, memories, experiences, and imagined imagery. Her work evokes dreamlike, disjointed scenes where the conventional logic of time and space dissolves. She develops spatial depth and narrative complexity by unfolding these layered traces of memory and internal reflections across the canvas. In recent works, she observes her domestic environment and surrounding ecosystems, integrating bodily rhythms and temporal perception accumulated through daily repetition into landscapes that merge the personal and the external.

Choi earned both her BFA and MFA in Painting from Chung-Ang University and is currently based in Paju, South Korea. She has held seven solo exhibitions, including Curiosity, Clouds, Words and Fruity Buttercream, and participated in numerous institutional exhibitions such as Humorland Inc. (Daegu Art Museum, 2021), The World We Made Together (OCI Museum of Art, 2020), and I Go My Own Way (MMCA Cheongju, 2019). She has also participated in residency programs at the OCI Museum of Art, Kuandu Museum of Fine Arts (Taiwan), and ArtMia Foundation (Beijing).
