

ARTIST BIOS:

AMTK is the collaborative practice of artists Andrew Mazorol (Brooklyn, NY) and Tynan Kerr (Los Angeles, CA). Their artistic partnership began 13 years ago in Minneapolis as the two were completing their studies (Tynan Kerr at MCAD, Andrew Mazorol at U of MN). They received early support from a Jerome Foundation Emerging Artist Fellowship and have exhibited at the MN Biennial at The Soap Factory, at Bockley Gallery, HAIR+NAILS, and the Temporary Museum of Contemporary Art in Minneapolis as well as Unspeakable Projects (SF and NYC). Their work has been featured in New American Paintings, Art Forum, McSweeney's and in deck and apparel designs by Polar Skate Co.

Rachel Youn (b. 1994) is a visual artist based in St. Louis. They received their BFA from the Sam Fox School of Design & Visual Arts at Washington University in St. Louis. Recent solo exhibitions include Soy Capitán, Berlin, Germany; HAIR+NAILS, Minneapolis, MN; the Contemporary Art Museum in St. Louis, MO. Their work has been exhibited nationally in Los Angeles, Chicago, New York City and Kansas City. Upcoming exhibitions include a solo show at Sargent's Daughters, New York, NY, and group shows at Galerie du Monde, Hong Kong, and Laumeier Sculpture Park in St. Louis, MO. Youn is a recipient of the 2020 Great Rivers Biennial Award and has attended residences at Vermont Studio Center and ACRE. They will attend the Yale MFA program in Sculpture in fall 2022.
