

Born in Arkansas, Lee Maxey lives and works in Brooklyn. Recent exhibitions include solo shows at Olympia and Hercules Art/Studio Program, both located in New York City; group shows at Able Baker Contemporary, Portland, ME, The Bureau of General Services: Queer Division, NYC; and a two-person exhibition in the 2019 SPRING/BREAK Art Show, NYC. Lee is an alumna of the Fire Island Artist Residency and the Hercules Studio/Art Program.

She received her MFA in 2016 from Boston University and her BFA in 2011 from the University of Central Arkansas. She currently teaches painting at Brooklyn College.

Lee Maxey is represented by Olympia.