

WADE TULLIER

Wade Tullier (b.1988, Baton Rouge, Louisiana) is a visual artist working primarily in ceramics and sculpture. His work and process are heavily influenced by storytelling and being raised within the landscape of southern Louisiana.

Tullier holds a BFA from Louisiana State University and an MFA from Cranbrook Academy of Art. He has exhibited nationally and internationally, with recent shows in Miami, Chicago, and Detroit. His work is included in 'With Eyes Opened: Cranbrook Academy of Art Since 1932' at the Cranbrook Art Museum and was recently included in 'Clay Pop' at Jeffrey Deitch New York. Tullier is represented by Primary.