

NADA 2023 SITUATIONS BIOS

ABDOLREZA AMINLARI (b. 1979, Tehran) employs geometric patterning and embroidery as a means to examine domestic labor and the passage of time. In collaboration with acclaimed hand papermaking studio Dieu Donné (Brooklyn, NY), Aminlari created a new series of works of multi-layered handmade paper into which he embroiders 24-karat gold thread. Intricate compositions reference the cross-stitching in Persian rugs made by his maternal relatives. He explores the intersection of craft and social practice, and intercultural ideas surrounding embroidery, labor, and gold.

FELIX BEAUDRY (b. 1996 Berkeley, CA) programs an industrial knitting machine to create textile-based sculpture and wall hangings. Drawing upon personal experience, and playing with relationships, bodily transitions, and gender, Beaudry experiments with both clothing and nudity. Apparel changes the physical experience in daily life and also acts as an extension of persona. Beaudry's fiber works reflect the space between skin and world - the works permute a fetishistic feeling that exceeds the confines of materiality. His imagery is programmed using Photoshop, Nedgraphics, and Stoll M1 Plus, then fed into a Stoll knitting machine. Part of the process entails Beaudry pushing the limits of the machine's and the technology's capabilities.

Felix Beaudry lives and works in Kingston, NY. He graduated with a BFA from RISD in 2018. Beaudry recently held a solo exhibition at SITUATIONS (New York, NY) and upcoming has a solo exhibition with Tatjana Pieters, Ghent and will be in a group show Purple Prose, a queer celebration of excess, at Boesky (New York) this summer. FAYE WEI WEI (b. London, 1994; Lives and works in London) creates work revolving around spiritual iconography and classical love rituals, and the theatricality of gender. Her work suggests the themes of particular mythic narratives, and at other moments seem to depart into a more ambiguous, interior space of incongruity and uncertainty. Stateliness coincides with brute force and pastel softness; symbols seem to shake free of their moorings and float, surrealistically, on the liquid expanse of dream. The scenes might be imagined or reflected in a mirror, but the energetic, bold brushstrokes, executed in thin layers, suggest something actually witnessed, balanced on the edge of reality.

Faye Wei Wei graduated from The Slade School of Art, London UK. Solo exhibitions include Galerie Kanlhofer, Vienna, Austria; Isetan Shinjuku, Tokyo, Japan; Cob Gallery, London, UK; SADE Gallery, Los Angeles; Centre For Chinese Contemporary Art, Manchester.
