

Christian Campos (b.1986) is currently living and working in Chicago as a teacher for CPS. Campos received a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Northern Illinois University in 2009. His current body of work centers around amorphous naturism and the wooden Sadean onanist fantasy of the forest floor. Campos has exhibited several solo exhibitions with Cleaner Gallery + Projects, in Chicago.

Sean Gannon (b.1993) graduated with a BFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2015. Gannon has exhibited solo exhibitions at EXPO Chicago, Luis de Jesus in Los Angeles, Ramp Gallery in London, Woaw Gallery in Hong Kong, Marvin Gardens in New York, and Cleaner Gallery + Projects in Chicago. He has been included in group shows in the United States, Puerto Rico and London (Left Field Gallery, ParisLondonHongKong, Roberto Paradise, and Ramp Gallery). Gannon lives and works in Chicago, IL.

Olivia Zubko (b.1995) is a Chicago-based artist who works primarily in sculpture, utilizing ceramic, fibers, and found materials. She received a BFA in sculpture in 2020 from Northern Illinois University. Recent exhibitions include Necessarium, a solo show at Cleaner Gallery + Projects in Chicago, West, Wester, Westest 4 at Left Field Gallery in Los Osos, CA, Home Grown at Unpacked Artist Space at MdW Fair in Chicago, and Art of Surface at The Robert T. Wright Gallery at College of Lake County. She was recently interviewed for The Comp Art & Design Magazine and featured in Red Skate Mag.