

Amanda Seibæk is a Danish born Glasgow based artist and a recent graduate of The Glasgow School of Art, 2022.

Amanda Seibæk Torp-Pedersen

Education:

Københavns Billedskole 2004-2014

Sankt Annæ Gymnasium 2014-2017

Vera skole for kunst og design Aug-Dec 2018

Krabbesholm højskole Jan-Jun 2019

Glasgow School of Art 2019-2022

Solo shows:

2024 Avenues, Patricia Fleming Gallery, Glasgow - solo

2023 Hemispheres, SWG3, Glasgow

2023 Shimmer, Galleri Norup, Copenhagen

Group Exhibitions:

2024 'Satin Bowerbirds', Glasgow International Festival of Contemporary Art

2023 "Because we want to", pipe factory, Glasgow

2023 John Byrne award, Edinburgh

2023 Pathways to Apricots, Outlier gallery, Glasgow

2023 Graduate show, Tatha Gallery, Dundee

2023 Through the turnstiles, strike art, London

2022 'A Coalescence of Daydreams', Affordable art fair-Graduate show, London

2022 "Unbaked Bread, DContemporary/Changingroomgallery, London/England

2022 "72 timer på alléen", Frederiksberg Alle 60a, Denmark

2022 "Cloud Seeding", Degree show/ Glasgow School of Art, Glasgow

2022 "The living room", Old hair dressers, Glasgow

2022 "Figures in motion", The Pipe Factory, Glasgow

2022 "Utceare", The drawing room, Glasgow

2021 "Stuck", Glue Factory, Glasgow

2021 "Offgrid3", 55.8571275, -4.2276784, Glasgow

2021 "7/10/2021", The Garage, Glasgow

2021 "Windy", Kelvin Grove, Glasgow

2020 "VirtuallyArt"(paintprintmake), Instagram

2019 "Giganten", Denmark

2019 "First World Problems", 4 Boxes, Denmark

2019 "Pump Fiction", Krabbesholm, Denmark

2019 "uglybastards", Godsbanen, Denmark

2018: "find me in the forest", Vera school of art and design", Denmark

2018 "walk the other way", PCV, Denmark

Collections & Awards:

"Swg3", Glasgow

"Klubhuset", Copenhagen Grants/Prizes/Shortlist/Residency

2022: SWG3 graduate residency

2022: shortlisted for John Byrne award

2022: The Jon McFarland Print Prize

2019: study grant: Grosserer L.F Foghts Fond 2019: "Giganten Denmark" (sculpture)
Various Private Collections